

Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. John 4:13-14

The world may seem like it has a lot to offer, but it will never truly quench your thirst. If anybody knew this, it was the Samaritan woman Jesus met at the well. Obviously she was looking for love, but in all the wrong places. She had a total of five previous husbands and a shack up honey. She kept going back to that “well” but her thirst was never satisfied. If you drink from this world, you will have to keep going back and back again, because it will never be enough. It’s like a someone who gets high for the first time and then continues to go back trying to get that feeling they had the first time they used. But it will never happen, they will never reach that high again. But the opposite is true with God. The first time you experience Him, it is the most amazing thing, but it just gets better and better. I thought nothing could feel better than when I was saved, until I was filled with the Holy Ghost. My walk with God gets better everyday... But are you thirsty today? Has the temporary pleasures of this world just left you dry? Try Jesus, He is the only one that can satisfy you.
